

MEMORANDUM

Employee Online

One of the Office of Human Resources objectives is to provide employees with tools that allow for access to their information and allow for efficient communication to the District. All employees have the ability to view their employment information, including check stubs via Employee Online.

Employee Online is a web-based system designed to give you access to your employment information, including check stubs, via the following link:

www.kusd.edu/eo

www.kusd.edu/eo

[Redacted content]